enLIGHTen

here am i.
send me.

Isaiah 6:8

This week as we celebrate Trinity Sunday in our lessons we get a glimpse of two very special invitations. The first is God's call to the prophet Isaiah. "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" <sup>Isaiah 6:8.</sup> Isaiah initially felt unworthy of God's calling but he allowed God to transform his life by moving him from a life of sin to a life of service. Isaiah is able to respond in faith. "Here am I send me"

The second is Jesus' very special charge to each of us to be involved in his mission of reconciling the world with God in love. Like Isaiah, we too may find ourselves feeling unworthy. The good news is that through the power of the cross Jesus declares us as worthy and calls us to share his mission. "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. <sup>Matt 28:19-20</sup> And just in case we still have any doubts about our worthiness for the task Jesus promises us; "Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." <sup>Matt 28:20</sup> How shall we respond? I pray that along with Isaiah our response may be; Here am I send me! Andrew

A Prayer for Reconciliation Week

Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled with you and reconciled with each other.
You made us in your likeness,
you gave us your Son, Jesus Christ.
He has given us forgiveness from sin.
Lord God, bring us together as one,
different in culture, but given new life in Jesus Christ,
together as your body, your Church, your people.
Lord God, bring us together as one,
reconciled, healed, forgiven,
sharing you with others as you have called us to do.
In Jesus Christ, let us be together as one. Amen
