Shine

October 23 2016, 23rd Sunday after Pentecost

Sentence: Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. Luke 18:17

Prayer of the week:

O God,
who alone can probe the depths of the heart,
you hear the prayer of the humble
and justify the repentant sinner:
grant us the gift of humility,
that, seeing our own faults clearly,
we may refrain from judging our neighbour
but rely solely on your saving grace.
We make our prayer through your Son, our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Position Vacant : Parish Treasurer.

The parish council are urgently in need of someone to take on the role of Parish Treasurer for the coming year. This is an important ministry in the life of our church. Unfortunately this year we were unable to make this appointment but as it is critical to the running and management of the parish, the Parish council have taken the decision that should we again fail to fill the post we will need to use the services of the Diocesan Bookkeeping Service. As this comes at a charge of $350.00 per month it is obviously better if we can fill the position ourselves. Your prayerfulness in this matter will be greatly appreciated. Please Speak to Andrew or one of the Wardens if you are able to assist..

Nomination Forms for Church Warden, and Parish Council are available from this morning.

Electoral Role Application forms are also available.

All Nomination forms and applications to be with the Vicar by 8am on the 13th of November

enLIGHTen

Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it. <sup>Luke 18:17</sup>

Jesus calls us to trust him with the faith of a child. He couldn't really have stated it any more plainly than he does in our Gospel reading for today. Sadly though, as we are so often prone to doing, one of the adults has to go and try to make belonging to the kingdom of God harder than it needs to be.

“Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” <sup>Luke 18:18</sup> asks a wealthy, self made young man. Jesus could have pointed out that he has just stated it clearly in the previous verses. Instead he asks the young man to remember the commandments. Relieved, our rich young friend is able to boast that he has been good at keeping these all his life. To his dismay, Jesus points out that he still lacks one thing. “Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” <sup>Luke 18:22</sup> What Jesus is asking of his rich young friend is that he should put into practice what he has already stated in verse 17, that is to trust him with the accepting and uncomplicated faith of a child.

Just like the rich young ruler, all too often, we too make the mistake of making the gift of eternal life something that we have to earn. Perhaps it's because deep down we all really believe that there is no such thing as a free lunch. The good news is that although not much may be free, eternal life is. Jesus has paid the price that we might freely receive it. All that is required of us is that we believe, and with the faith of a child put our trust in Jesus. It really is that simple, otherwise Jesus wouldn't have said so.

Till next time. Andrew

OFFERINGS

One of the best ways of supporting the life and mission of our church is by setting up a direct debit with the Anglican Development Fund. ADF Planned Giving is the preferred method of giving directly, as it is completely anonymous. You can choose to give out of any bank account or credit card, and can give on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis. You also receive a book of tickets to put into the collection plate each week. Details of how to do this are available from the back of each church or you can contact the ADF direct.

Prayer Ministry Prayer requests to: Wendy Berry or email: mtdandyparishprayer@y7mail.com

If you would like to join our group of intercessors please email Wendy Berry and let her know you would like your name added to the list.
