Prayer of the day

Loving God,
you have made us in your own image,
creating us male and female,
you have consecrated the covenant of marriage
so in it is signified the spiritual marriage between Christ
and his Church:
pour your grace upon all who are called to this holy state,
that, keeping their promise of faithfulness to each other
they may reflect in their lives your love for all;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A Cure for Hard Hearts

It's a powerful message from our Gospel reading this week. In response to the hardheartedness of the Pharisees and the Disciples, Jesus shows them a better more powerful way.

"Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." Mark 10:15

Both the Pharisees with their hypocritical legalism and plans to entrap Jesus and the disciples with their own agendas and disregard for the children seeking out Jesus blessing have missed the point. The only way to truly experience the love and grace of God's love is with the faithful and uncomplicated and unquestioning love of a child.

For those, who in the eyes of the world, seemingly have the least to offer Jesus, are those who are able to receive the most from him. For only when we learn that what Jesus truly desires of us, is the gift of faithful trusting hearts, can we begin to understand and enjoy what it means to live in his blessing.

Till next time Andrew

OFFERINGS

One of the best ways of supporting the life and mission of our church is by setting up a direct debit with the Anglican Development Fund. ADF Planned Giving is the preferred method of giving directly, as it is completely anonymous. You can choose to give out of any bank account or credit card, and can give on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis. You also receive a book of tickets to put into the collection plate each week. Details of how to do this are available from the back of each church or you can contact the ADF direct.
